Unmarried old man, red-faced old man,
Just like this, just like that,
Has put his cap askew,
Just like this, just like that,

Has put his cap askew,
Just like this, just like that,
To the one side, to the other side
Just like this, just like that,

To the one side, to the other side,
Just like this, just like that,
And went to the village,
Just like this, just like that,

And went to the village,
Just like this, just like that,
And took place in the ring dance,
Just like this, just like that.

And took place in the ring dance,
Just like this, just like that,
In the ring dance among the young girls,
Just like this, just like that.

In the ring dance among the young girls,
Just like this, just like that,
All the young girls have run away,
Just like this, just like that.

All the young girls have run away,
Just like this, just like that,
Only the youngest has stayed,
Just like this, just like that.

Only the youngest has stayed,
Just like this, just like that,
The youngest, called Angelina,
Just like this, just like that.

E-e-e-eh
Just like this, just like that
