

Vino piju age sarajlije

— Agas from Sarajevo are drinking wine —

Sarajevo, Bosnia

Vi - no pi - ju, na - ne, vi - no pi - ju, na - ne, a - ge sa - raj - li - je,
 Slu - ži - la ih, na - ne, slu - ži - la ih, na - ne, sa - raj - ka dje - voj - ka;
 Sva - ki joj se, na - ne, sva - ki joj se, na - ne, za gr - lo ma - ša - še.
 "A - ko mo - ram, na - ne, a - ko mo - ram, na - ne, sva - kom slu - ga bi - ti, na I - li - dži, na - ne, na I - li - dži, na - ne, po - kraj Sa - ra - je - va.

 ka - ko ko - me, na - ne, ka - ko ko - me, na - ne, ča - še na - lje - va - še.
 Pro - go - va - ra, na - ne, pro - go - va - ra, na - ne, sa - raj - ka dje - voj - ka:
 ja ne mo - ram, na - ne, ja ne mo - ram, na - ne, sva - kom lju - ba bi - ti!"

Popular old city song from Sarajevo.

Agas* from Sarajevo are drinking wine

Agas from Sarajevo are drinking wine,
 at Ilidža, near Sarajevo.

A Sarajevo girl is waiting on them,
 filling each of their glasses in turn.

Everyone of them tries to embrace her.
 The Sarajevo girl exclaims:

"Just because I have to be waitress to all doesn't mean I have to be everybody's lover!"

* aga (from Turkish ağa, 'lord, master') – Title borne by landowners and other males of social or military rank.

 Ilidža – Popular spa just outside Sarajevo; nowadays considered part of the greater urban area of that city.